Apex Primary School Expresses Gratitude for Support Amidst Security Concerns

LONDON, December, 8th, 2023 - Apex Primary School extends its heartfelt gratitude to the local authorities, law enforcement agencies, parents, and the community at large for the unwavering support received in response to recent security concerns. The outpouring of solidarity has been both comforting and reaffirming of the resilient spirit that defines our school community.

In the face of adversity, the collaboration with local authorities and the police has been appreciated. The ongoing commitment to ensuring the safety and security of our students, staff, and parents is crucial, and we are grateful for the efforts invested in addressing the situation. The partnership between the school and law enforcement remains strong as we collectively work towards maintaining a secure environment.

The school acknowledges the concern expressed by parents and members of the community. Your support has not only strengthened our resolve but has served as a powerful reminder of the unity that defines Apex Primary School. We firmly believe that standing together against hate and intolerance is the most effective way to overcome such challenges.

As of the date of our previous press release on the 7th of December, the school has not issued any official communication outside of that release. It is essential for our school community to be aware that any communications received outside of our official channels are not endorsed by Apex Primary School. Please exercise caution and verify the authenticity of any information purported to be from the school.

Apex Primary School remains committed to transparency and will continue to provide updates through official channels as the situation unfolds. We appreciate your understanding and cooperation during these challenging times.
