إِنَّا لِلَّهِ وَإِنَّا إِلَيْهِ رَاجِعُونَ

Innā lillāhi wa innā ilayhi rāji'ūn

"Indeed, to Allah we belong, and to Him we shall return." (Qur'an 2:156)

It is with profound sorrow and a heavy heart that we announce the passing of our dear brother and trustee, Ibrahim Rashid, a humble individual pivotal in laying the foundation and continued growth of Apex Trust, Apex Primary School and Apex Secondary School.

Brother Ibrahim played a vital role in the formation of Apex Trust, shaping its strategic vision and ensuring the development of Apex Primary School in line with full regulatory compliance and Islamic values. His unwavering commitment and dedication for over two decades were nothing short of extraordinary.

He was also at the forefront of helping drive the Apex Trust to initiate the Apex Secondary School.

A man of humility and sincerity, Ibrahim served countless Islamic and community projects fi sabeelillah, never seeking recognition for himself but always working for the sake of Allah. His legacy extends far beyond Apex Trust, having contributed to the success and sustainability of many organisations and individuals serving the Muslim community today.

Ibrahim was known for his warmth, wisdom, and selfless nature. He was a visionary who always looked to the future, investing his time and energy in establishing initiatives that would benefit generations to come. He mentored, advised, and uplifted others, sharing his knowledge generously so that others could rise and succeed.

Though he preferred not to step into the public limelight, Ibrahim's impact rippled quietly through the community in the background. Many will never know the depth of his contribution, but countless lives have been touched by his efforts.

We pray that every moment he spent in service, every life he impacted, and every project he supported will be a continuous charity (sadaqah jāriyah) for him in the Hereafter. May Allah, Ar-Raḥmān (The Most Merciful), forgive him, expand his grave with light, and elevate his rank among those most beloved to Him in Jannat al-Firdaws.

Please join us in praying for Ibrahim that Allah grants comfort and sabr to his family and loved ones during this time of loss. Ameen.
